

72
434
407

¶ These be to require and charge you, and euery of you, in the Quenes maiesties name and behalfe by vertue and authozity of her graces commissioun to vs directed, that you be and personally appeare before vs, her maiesties commissioners at the next comming, bringinge with you, then & there to deliuer vnto vs, to her highnesse vse, saye wyrtten in parchment vnder youre signes and seales, a true and perfect certificat and answer, of al and euery article and thing hereafter ensuiuing, so as you wil berefy the same to be true at your comming by your coꝛpoꝛal othes, and answer the contrary at all times hereafter at your perils.

- I  Ift you shal enquire of al landes, tenements, medowes, pastozs, woodes, vnderwoodes, reuercions and hereditamentes within your parish which heretofore did belong oꝛ appertain to any late monastery oꝛ priory, and wer reputed and taken as parcel oꝛ member of the same, whych before this time ought to haue come to the handes and possession, of the late kinges of famous memoꝛy king Henry the viii. oꝛ king Edward the vi. Duene Mary, oꝛ to the Duenes Maiesty that now is, by the dissolution of the same by foꝛce of ii. seuerall actes of parliament made at Westminster in the xxvii. and xxxi. yeres of the reign of the said late king Henry the viii. whych haue bene oꝛ be concealed and wrongfully deteyned from her Maiesty, her said father, brother, and sister, of what yere value the same is: and in whose tenure and occupation.
- Item, of all colledges, chauntries, free chappels, chappels of ease, within your parish (hauing being within v. yeres next before the iiii. day of Nouember. Anno primo Reg. C. vi. & of all manors, landes, tenements, rentes, tithes, pensions, portions, & other hereditamentes to them oꝛ any of them then belonging, which ought to come to the handes of the Duenes Maiesty by foꝛce of an act of parliament made for the dissolution of the same in the first yere of the reigne of the same late king Edward oꝛ whiche by any wayes oꝛ meanes, were desolued oꝛ extingguished, sith the. iiii. daye of February in the. xxvii. yere of kinge Henry the. viii. being yet concealed from her highnes, and so haue ben from her graces said brother and sister.
- Item what landes, tenementes and hereditamentes, were appoynted to the findinge of a priest for euer, and wherewith any priest hath bene maintayned oꝛ found at any time within the said v. yeres, which were not in the real possession of the late king Edward the vi. noꝛ Duene Mary: noꝛ yet be come to the Duenes Maiesty that now is.
- Item what annuall rentes, profits, oꝛ emolumentes, at anye time wythin the said v. yeres haue ben employed to wardes the finding of any stipendary priest (intended by any act oꝛ wytyng to haue continuance for euer) yet concealed from her highnes, and haue ben concealed from her graces said brother and sister.
- Item what landes, tenementes, hereditamentes, profits and other things haue ben by any conueyance appoynted to the finding of a priest for yeres, and wherewith any priest hath ben found within the said v. yeres, likewise concealed from her highnes as afoꝛe is said.
- Item what landes, tenementes, and hereditamentes haue ben appoynted wholly to the finding of any Annuall, white, light, lamp, oꝛ other like entent oꝛ purpose for euer, which haue ben kept within the said v. yeres, yet concealed from her highnes, and haue bene concealed fro her graces brother and sister.
- Item, wheras part of the issues of such landes were appoynted to the intents afoꝛesaid for euer, that then you do enquire what greatest soun of mony hath bene employd about the intents afoꝛesaid, in any one yere within v. yeres aboue said, yet concealed fro her highnes & haue ben concealed fro her graces said brother & sister.
- Item, you shal enquire what summes of mony and profits by any manner of conueyances were appoynted to haue continuance for euer, and what was the greatest somme of mony, that in any one yere of the said v. yeres were employed by any coꝛpoꝛation, fraternity, company, oꝛ felowship of misteries oꝛ craftes to wardes the finding of any priest, annuall, light, lamp, oꝛ other like thing: yet concealed from her highnes and haue bene concealed from her graces sayde brother and sister.
- Item, how many brotherhoods, guilds, and fraternities not being felowships of misteries oꝛ craftes, be within your said parish, & what landes, tenementes and hereditamentes are belonging to any of them, yet concealed from her highnes, and haue bene concealed from her graces said brother and sister.
- Item, what goods, cattels, plate, iewels, ornaments, oꝛ other moueables late belonging to any the said colledges, chauntries, free chapell oꝛ stipendary priest for the furniture of their seueral foundations ar yet with holden from her maiesty, by whom and of what value.
- Item of al landes, tenementes, & hereditamentes, goods and chattels, which ought to come to the Duenes maiesty, by reason of any attaindoꝛ oꝛ foꝛfeiture of any person oꝛ persons by treason, felony oꝛ murder, oꝛ such like offence oꝛ offences, whiche are concealed from her maiesty, oꝛ haue ben concealed &c.
- Item of all landes, tenementes, and hereditamentes which ought to come to the Duenes maiesties handes by way of escheate, viz. yf any parson oꝛ persons being boꝛne without the Duenes dominions, inhabiting within the same haue purchased any manner landes oꝛ tenementes to them and their heirs for euer, without the speciall licence of the pꝛince, oꝛ if any parson oꝛ parsons holding any landes oꝛ tenementes of the Duenes maiesty haue died therof leased, without heirs generall oꝛ special, wherby the same landes ought to escheat to her highnes, oꝛ her graces progenitoꝛs, and are concealed and wrongfully deteyned from her maiesty oꝛ her said progenitoꝛs.
- Item you shal enquire generally of al landes, tenementes, and hereditamentes geuen by any of the Duenes maiesties moste noble progenitoꝛs to any parson oꝛ parsons, for terme of life oꝛ lyfes, oꝛ in taile, whiche ought to reuerter and come to her highnes handes by anye manner of meanes oꝛ wayes, in reuersion oꝛ remainder, and haue bene oꝛ be concealed and wrongfully detayned from her highnes, oꝛ from her graces most noble progenitoꝛs, and if any such you do find, then to enquire where the same do lie, and in whose possession the same is, and to what vse the same was first geuen and appointed, together with the cleere yere value therof, and who takerh the profits of the same.
- Item what sale and spoyle of timber of any Castels, houses, oꝛ buldinges haue ben made, by whom and to what value, and what hath ben taken from any of the same, wherof the Duene noꝛ her progenitoꝛs haue ben answered any profit.
- Item how many of the said castels: maners and other edifices, be so decayed that they cannot be repayred agayne with any reasonable charges.
- Item to value what the stone, timber, glasse, Iron and stufte, of such ruinous castels, oꝛ maner places and other edifices, ar woꝛth to be sold.
- Item what leade and belmettel hath ben taken from any the said castles, late monasteries, colleges and chaunteries, by whom & to what quantie and value.
- Item what quantitie of leade and belmettell is remayning in any suche place.
- Item if any parke be so decayde of game, clousure, and wod, that the same is not to be continued. Then to certifie, by whom the same was made, and to what value the same amounteth.
- Item to certifie the quantitie and goodnes of the grounde of euery suche parke, and for what yere rent the same may be letten.
- Item to certifie the state of the Duenes houses, in boꝛowes and townes, and what will repayze the same. And whether the rent of any of them be decayed and how the same may be reuiued.
- Item if any be disposed to take a lease of anye the sayde houses for the term of yeaꝛes at the olde rent and with repzations. Let them com to the commissioners.
- Item where any the sayd houses be so decayed that the same cannot be repaired without ouer much charge, neyther can be letten oꝛ demised: Then to certifie what the timber, tile, glasse, yron, bricke: and other stufte of the same is woꝛth to be solde.
- Item what timber oꝛ woodes haue ben spoyled by any woodward oꝛ other parson, by colour of repzations oꝛ other wise.
- Item what fines, prophetes, oꝛ somes of money haue ben receyued by any bailife, collector, oꝛ any other for any tenement, house, land, woodes, herietz, cellrey oꝛ any other casualtie, for the whiche as yet the Duene is not answered.
- Item what fines will be geuen by any man, for any the Duenes maiesties landes, tenementes oꝛ fermes, lying within your said parish.